PHARAOH Thee WELL !!

Folks, news from the Sheriff onboard the S.S. Durango is that he's bin blown off coor's! Madam was the one, she woke up & went for her morning walk around the deck & noticed the Captain, Ty Tanic, was missing from the bridge & saw the Coxswayin'. They found the captain asleep at the wheel with a sex-pack of Red Mountain Sourmash & 20 odd empty bottles of DW's around him! They'd dun gone too far & sailed straight into Egypt of all places. The ship needs supplies so they decided to check the place out. Madam Lash went to the ticket office & noticed the funny paintings on the wall & knew the men here were excited to see her!

Is that a pistol in your pocket, or you jest happy to see me ?

Barkeep sez I need to always keep it cold ...

And it's after 5 now so the temperature is the way he likes it

Well, we missed docking in London but the Silvertonians unloaded one of the injuns & decided to visit the Pyramids & chase a camel train or two. Outlaw got his whorse Myrtle & joined in the fun while Sparky cranked up Radio K-HON3 & was "ON-AIR" tellin' the folks back home about being blown off coor's. Barkeep had the galley girl keeping things cool fer him, he's always had trouble with refrigerators & their doors but she tendered to his habit! Outlaw bought a camel from an old Giza for $100. The camel man agreed to deliver the camel the next day. Nixt morning the old Giza rode up and sez, 'Sorry Mr Outlaw, but I have some bad news, the camel died.' The cunning Outlaw replied, 'Well, then just give me my money back.' The old Giza sez, 'Can't do that coor's I went & spent it already.' Outlaw then sez, 'OK, then, just bring me the dead camel.' The Arab asked, 'What ya gonna do with a dead camel? The Outlaw sez, 'I'm going to raffle him off.' The Arab sez 'You can't raffle off a dead camel!' Outlaw sez, 'Sure I can, jest watch me, I just won't tell anybody he's dead! That afternoon the Arab met up with Outlaw & asked, 'What happened with that dead camel?'

Outlaw sez, 'I raffled him off & sold 500 tickets at two dollars apiece & made a profit of $898.00.' The camel man sez, 'Didn't anyone complain?' With a cheeky grin, Outlaw sez, 'Just the guy who won. So I gave him his two dollars back !' The bank of Cairo now wants him to work fer em! Brewer seein' the camel had an idea. These "ships-o-dar-desert" can hold drink fer weeks without thirstin', so he thought to get some samples & test it on a friend. But who? Of coor's, . . . . Spike!

Sheik of Sneek ...
The "Outlaw" of coor's!

The gang took a pop-car to tour the desert & the Brewer rode up front & supplied the unsuspectin' friends with "Camel Beer" from a recipe he found on a wall near the pyramids.

Well the "new-brew" had a bit of a side effect on Spike & he started kissing camels to Madam's amazement!

The Egyptian beer brew sure was stimulatn' & Madam sez she wants the Brewer to provide her with the recipe when they git back home. Meanwhile back at the station, the injun gave a Toot an Carmen got the train ready for another trip.

SPIKES
SOUR-MASH
EFFECTS !

The depot camel was a friendly flea ridden cross-breed bitch, she would only let you touch her if ya sez her name Cleo, patta, then stand back to she her drool!

PROFESSOR FINDS HIS MUMMY

Madam needed some money so she went down the Bank of the Nile & drew out a little prophet & the Professor got wrapped-up with a bloke in the tavern bar sez he was his Mummy of all things! Pianoman operated the pop-car with Inspector lookin' fer kinky twists but Mayor sez all them kinkyies are back in SanFran ! What a time we are all having, why this place is older'n Barkeep!

The gang had a stay in the Cairo Camel Hotel, Egypt's finest that overlooks the city.

Brewer had some more testing to do on "that" Blackstone loco & found some help from one of Madam's girls, Rhoda Horn, she always likes to play!

Denver International Airport also saw the Little Folk - They only fly Animas Airways of coor's! (This was before they left for O/S)

The old trick of using a "banister" rail was employed once again (!) along with a bit of flextrack but the darn oil ran out of the motor on the grade making it slip so our Brewer washed down the injun with some DW & instantly it got a grip! Wunderfool stuff this DW, it fixes all sorts of things.

- TUNE IN & HEAR RADIO K-HON3

The SS Durango has taken on fuel & supplies & is now sailing to London where the Queen has a reception all planned for our gang. Lots of warm beer, puddings & a bit of Haggis too. Captain Ty Tanic has sobered up & the coxswain is being watched by madam & keeping her eye on the compass to make sure we arrive in the right port this time !

So its pharaoh thee well from Egypt & on our way back to the UK. Of coor's dare'll be more news of this Great Train Chase that's now a world tour & we speckt' a rite-royal reception when we berth in London town.

And you nose, that Brewer has gone to a lot of trouble so we'z say a big "onya-mate" to him, & you also nose this last bit too - coor's dares always sumtin' hap'nin in Silverton.
